Bellavista, Franciacorta DOCG Brut Rosé,
2018, Lombardia

Italy's answer to Champagne. One of Franciacorta's most storied producers. Hints of strawberries, wildflowers and toasted bread. A beautiful blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Nero grapes.

14|27|102

Felluga "Curubella", Single Vineyard Pinot Grigio,
2020, Friuli – Venezia Giulia

Golden yellow with coppery hues. The nose starts with subtle floral and citrus notes. Lime blossom with fruity aromas of pears, and peaches. The floral aromas include a note of freshly mown hay and jasmine. An extremely minerally wine on the palate, with well-balanced freshness with hints of citrus fruits and marjoram. Nicely textured with a lingering finish, beautiful with our scallop risotto!

15|29|109

Chateau Montelena, Chardonnay,
2019, Napa Valley

A storied wine from a historic property in the heart of Napa Valley. A beautiful balance of structure and opulence. Ripe fruits and beautifully integrated oak. A gorgeous expression of California Chardonnay with just a hint of concentration and age.

17|33|122

Damilano "Lecinquevigne", Barolo DOCG,
2021, Piemonte

If you know anything about Solare, you know we love Nebbiolo! Damilano is one of our favorite producers of Barolo. This wine delivers everything you'd expect from a gorgeous age worthy nebbiolo, ruby red in color with garnet highlights and aromas of red fruits, violets, and spices. Full-bodied, structured, persistent, and savory on the palate, a truly delicious sip.

.13|26|91

Campinovi, Brunello di Montalcino,
2018, Toscana

Traditionally vinified and aged for 38 months. Ruby red color with some purplish hints. On the nose with distinctive notes of prunes and Morello cherry such as mineral scents, licorice and tobacco.

Well integrated tannins, even if still vigorous with an exceptionally long finish.

13|26|91

Lungarotti , Montefalco Sagrantino DOCG
Umbria, 2020

A red wine with great richness in polyphenols. Deep and intense purple-red colour with a complex bouquet of red fruits, marasca cherry, currant and raspberry, as well as delicate notes of sweet tobacco and cocoa, finishing off with hints of officinal herbs. The structure is dense with rich but harmonious tannins and wonderful complexity; the fruitiness is sustained by fresh acidity and the finish is long-lasting.

16|32|115

San Felice "Vigorello", Pugnello/Cabernet Sauvignon/Merlot
Toscana IGT, 2018

San Felice's Vigorello blend boasts flowers, figs and raspberries up front, with dark chocolate covered coconut and whiskey barrels underneath. Black cherries and plums come out on the palate, with hints of metallic earth tones (like black olives out of the can). The taut tannins harmonize with ease alongside the substantial fruit and oak aging.
